

Cam Waller

UX Design | Front End Dev | Writing & Editing

Currently a MEXT scholar, NCECA Multicultural Fellow and PhD candidate pursuing growth in the arts and technology.

Email | LinkedIn

Relevant Experience

Contract Writer/Editor, Accessibility.com

Remote | September 2021 - Present

- Write pitched and assigned articles on accessibility topics
- Edit, proofread, and fact-check articles on accessibility topics and evaluate new writers
- Provide developmental feedback to writers
- Collaborate with a distributed team

Web Developer, Florida State College at Jacksonville

Jacksonville, FL | May 2015 - March 2018

- Key role in site redesign and migration to cloud-hosted solution
- Provide Collegewide support and maintenance for enterprise level site
- Design, develop and test responsive applications and advise on UX
- Advise on, test for and enforce 508 and ADA compliance and style guidelines in accordance with WCAG standards
- Retrieve data from APIs, manage digital content and monitor site stability
- Train end users and provide additional multimedia, development, and technical support

User Experience Design Immersive, General Assembly

Washington, DC | November 2014 - March 2015

- Opportunity Fund Fellowship awardee
- Learn and apply UX design process to a variety of projects with Agile approach
- Perform user research and testing
- Create sketches wireframes, prototypes, personas, etc.
- Meet business goals and user needs
- Work with and advise clients and present proposals and results
- Complete UX project for International Rhino Foundation site redesign

Education

- PhD in Global Art Practice, Tokyo University of the Arts, Present
- MFA in Ceramics, Tokyo University of the Arts, 2022
- Japanese, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, 2018
- Certificate in Digital Forensics, Florida State College at Jacksonville, 2018
- BFA in Animation, Savannah College of Art and Design, 2008